By Carolyn Lee
The Imperial Republicant

The fourth daughter of Heather and Justin Schoenholz was born at Chase County Community Hospital Jan. 9, making her the first baby of the year born at that facility.

Andee Mae Schoenholz made her debut at 6:40 p.m., weighing 7 lbs. 14 ozs. and measuring 20 and one-half inches long.

She sports dark hair, as did her now-blond siblings Jolee, 5; Ella, 3 and Shelbey, 20 months.

Dr. Jonathan Richman delivered Andee. Her mother is an LPN at CCCH and Chase County Clinic, while Justin owns Schaner's Transportation trucking company.

As the first baby born in 2009 at CCCH, Andee received the following gifts from area businesses:

Prior's, gift box (bibs); Southside Liquor, wine bottles; Hair Effects Unlimited, baby shampoo; Case IH, semi truck; Adams Drug, gift basket of soaps, etc.; Fine Things, wrapped gift, porcelain angel and baby; Mud Buckets, diaper bag and gifts; Balcony House, one night stay; Owens True Value, $20 gift certificate; Capitol Liquor, $20 chamber bucks; McNair Agency, $20; On Broadway, $25 gift certificate; Carquest, $25 gift certificate; Pizza Hut, $40 gift card; TO Haas, $10; Imperial Credit Union, $25; Adams Lumber, $20 gift certificate; Chase County Community Hospital, blankets, credit for day in the nursery; Imperial NAPA, beanie baby; Hospital Auxiliary, bear; Imperial Auto Renewal, diapers; Triple O, blanket; Adams Bank & Trust, $25 savings account; Pinnacle Bank, $50 savings account; Chase 3000, one month free internet; First Bank & Trust, $50; Great Plains Communications, $75 off bill; Artistic Woodworking, $20; Imperial Republican, free one year subscription; BT's Machine, $25; Home Decor, $20; Imperial Country Ford, $25; Southwest Title Co., $15; Kwik Stop, $25 gas card.