Vicky Brown of Lamar pulled off a double in the Nebraska Barrel Horse Association barrel racing held at the fair last week.

Brown won buckles in the 2D and 3D divisions of the open competition.

Her two-run average on her horse, "My Hope Eternal," earned her the buckle in the 2D division. Her two runs were clocked at 17.227 and 17.557.

Her average on "Joe's Scratch" earned her the buckle in the 3D division as well. Her two runs in this division were clocked at 17.809 and 18.047.

Other buckle winners in the open division included Gayle White of Dickens in 1D on "Perks Angel Face."

Kelsey Wood of Imperial won the 4D buckle in the open competition on "Cowboy."

In the youth division, 1D was won by Jared Knobbe of Imperial on "Joe".

The winner in 2D was Shelby Mustion of Hershey on "Apache."

Colton Sides of North Platte won the 3D buckle on "Jazzy" while Colby Duval of Max took the 4D buckle on "Bear."

The youth division included 14 riders and there were 37 riders in the open competition.

The event was sponsored by Reinke Irrigation, Pivot Electric, Budweiser, Johnson Publications, Edward Jones Investments and J&T Fundraising—John and Theresa Schilke.

Results of the open and youth divisions are as follows:
