

By Russ Pankonin

The Imperial Republican

Judging for the Imperial Chamber of Commerce's Christmas lighting contest in Imperial will be held early Sunday evening, Dec. 21.

This year the Chamber will be offering prizes of $25 and $15 in Chamber Bucks to the top two participants in each category.

The categories for this year's judging include religious, contemporary, best window, best tree, most unique and judges' choice.

No entry form is required. To participate, all local residents need to do is have their lights on early the evening of Dec. 21.