

Jon Fenwick of Imperial received an honorable mention for an abstract metal sculpture at the Five State Art Show in McCook last month.

Fenwick created the piece out of automotive parts and titled it, "Ascension." The show was held at the McCook Fine Arts Center.

Fenwick also enjoys photographic art. He works for the city's public works department.