

St. Patrick's Catholic Church celebrated its new building with an open house on Sunday. About 40 people visited the hall, located at 740 Broadway. The hall is used for meals, classes and meetings. While some landscaping is still planned, the hall was completed recently. It can seat 200 people in the main room, and also features a large kitchen. Above, area residents enjoy refreshments during the open house. (Republican photo)