

The windows at many Imperial businesses have been decorated for Christmas, thanks to art students at Chase County Schools. Students in Chelsea Zuege's classes were out and about Monday and Tuesday, creating special holiday looks on many of the windows. Above, Grant Lenners, left, and Tanner Stromberger, Art II students, paint a candy cane and candle decor at The Imperial Republican office. Up the street north a few blocks, art teacher Zuege, left, and student Rachel Bischoff make quick work of decorating the business window at Capitol Liquor. (Republican photos)

