

Residents of the community had much to take part in and also get in some shopping at the Imperial Chamber of Commerce's Old Fashioned Christmas Festival Wednesday, Dec. 2. The day wouldn't have been a Christmas celebration without Santa, above, although Alex Nelson, son of Mike and Linda Nelson, wasn't too fond of the Jolly Old Gent who was set up for pictures at Pinnacle Bank. However, the young children certainly enjoyed the Christmas book readings provided by Jo Leyland at the city offices, below left. Below, this trio of singers, from left, Dena Taylor, Ron Taylor and Mike Moreland, provided Christmas carols at the VFW Hall during the soup supper. (Republican photos)

