

Chase County High School graduate Beth Kitt will make a comeback to prime time TV on ABC's "The Bachelor Pad," a spin-off of the hit show "The Bachelor."

The 30-year-old Wauneta native resides in Los Angeles, and appeared on the most recent season of the ABC reality TV show. She made it to the end of the third episode.

On "The Bachelor Pad," Kitt will square off with 18 other contestants for a chance to win $250,000.

The reality show takes place in a mansion, and is slated to debut on Monday, Aug. 9, at 6 p.m. MT.

Kitt's sister, Kristi McNair, is an Imperial resident.
