

With temperatures as nice as they have been, the city of Imperial public works crew took advantage of it and put up some of the Christmas holiday decorations downtown Tuesday. Dan Leibhart is high above the streets in the bucket truck getting one of the wreaths in place. The Chamber of Commerce has set it Christmas opening event for Wednesday, Dec. 1. (Republican photo)