

During Sunday's pre-4-H open class walk/trot at the fair's horse show, youngsters had the opportunity to ride around the arena on their horses in front of judge Tim Gibbens of Gothenburg, as an adult or older 4-H member led them along. Jasmine and Keylee Johnson, above, chose to ride bareback for the walk/trot, and unbeknownst to Julie Ferguson in front, they started to slowly slide off the horse and eventually hit the ground. The young Johnsons were brave little girls, however, and got back up on the horse and finished the ride. (Republican photos)

