

Longtime country music performer Travis Tritt headlined Friday night's grandstand show at the Chase County Fair. Fans enjoyed hearing some of his long-standing hits such as No. 1 songs "Foolish Pride" and "Best of Intentions." Seven of Tritt's albums have been certified platinum and Friday's show attendees heard songs from several of them. Many in the crowd took the opportunity to dance during several of his upbeat numbers. The Tritt show, which followed opener Hunter Hayes, a newcomer to the country scene, was attended by 2,268, which represented 60.7 percent of the tickets available for the pair of entertainers. (Republican photos)

