

The weekly Sunday openings at the Chase County Museum in Champion end this weekend. Sunday, Sept. 2, will be the final day for the afternoon openings this season. Vicki Brown of the museum committee said the facility will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. as usual. The Chase County Stompers square dance club was scheduled to perform but had to cancel, she said.