Several activities are in the plans next week as the Imperial Manor and Parkview/Heights observe National Assisted Living Week.

Celebrated Sept. 9-15, the week's theme this year is Art for the Ages.

On Monday, special music from Merylyn Leibbrandt will begin at 11:15 a.m.

An open house is set for Wednesday, Sept. 12, starting at 1 p.m. Cookies and punch will be served and music will be provided by Kim Silvester, Jim Brown and Marla Smith.

Capping off the week will be Friday, Sept. 14, when staff will serve root beer floats at 9:30 a.m.

Director of the facilities, Sandra Palmer, invites the public in for the events all next week or anytime. She has information on how to become a volunteer, as well.
