A memorial mass was held Tuesday for 17-year-old Bryan Paolo Glenn in Fairfax, Va., nephew of Lynette Meeske of Imperial.

Glenn disappeared Oct. 1 after dropping his younger brother off at school. His parents' car, which he had been driving, was discovered the next day in Thaiss Park.

Glenn's body was found by volunteers in the same park Oct. 8.

An autopsy was performed Oct. 9. The cause of death is still under investigation by the Fairfax County Police Department.

Meeske said the family is "grateful for the outpouring of the community here. It's just been stupendous. They are really supporting the family."

She added that it will be "a long road to healing."
