

Imperial usually does its part in providing entertaining Halloween sights and sounds. This year, the popular holiday for kids and adults alike arrived amid beautiful fall weather that drew out people to see the yard displays and take in the Imperial EMS Haunted House. Above, three of the characters were getting ready to greet those venturing in Monday night to the Haunted House in the city gym, which was open through Halloween night. Below, things don't stay buried long in a small town as this display in the 600 block of Wellington St. shows. (Republican photos)

