

Cathy Rowley of Imperial recently earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in business administration with an emphasis in health care management.

The degree was awarded by Colorado Technical University in Colorado Springs in June. She finished with a cumulative 3.7 GPA and graduated cum laude.

In October, she started working fulltime on a Master's Degree in business administration from the same school, and hopes to finish in May 2014.

Rowley also holds an Associate's Degree from Colorado Technical University in medical billing and coding, earned in 2009, when she graduated with high honors and a 3.84 GPA.

She is a member of Sigma Beta Delta, an international honor society for business management/administration majors.

The Imperial native and Chase County High School graduate has four grown children and eight grandchildren.
