

By Jan Schultz

The Imperial Republican

Members of the Imperial Volunteer Fire Department re-elected Nick Schultz as chief for the coming year, after he completed his first year in the position.

The approval of the department's line and business officers came at the IVFD's Nov. 19 meeting.

The IVFD officer slate will come before the Imperial city council for formal approval at their Dec. 3 meeting.

The IVFD meets monthly during the year. The first Monday of the month is designated as a practice night, while the department uses the third Monday of the month for its business meeting.

Here is the full slate of officers serving through November 2013.

Line officers—Nick Schultz, chief; Doug Mitchell, first asst. chief; Greg Koellner, second asst. chief; Daryl Sharp, first lieutenant; Brad Wheeler, second lieutenant.

Business officers—Dirk Hill, president; Craig Loeffler, vice president; Josh Burke, secretary; Todd Burpo, treasurer; Josh Moreno, sgt. at arms.