

The third annual Lied Imperial Public Library puzzle contest attracted 17 contestants Saturday. Library personnel select the puzzles used by the four-person, two-person and single person teams. Winning the four-person division in one hour was “Puzzled,” consisting of Melanie Carman, Breanna Carman, Elisha Hinojosa and Anthony Wood. “The Puzzlers,” or Rhonda Smith and Kristine Smith, took one hour 19 minutes to finish the two-person puzzle to take first. Vickie Beard won the single person contest with a time of four hours 35 minutes. Above, Joyce and Lynn Fortkamp work together to put pieces in the correct places. (Republican photo)
