

Gospel quartet pieces, '40s, '50s and contemporary selections make up the variety of Christian music to be shared at the United Methodist worship service this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Six Kansas musicians formed the Armouraires group a year ago, combining their extensive vocal backgrounds. They have been recognized by the Midwest Ministerial Alliance as a top Christian singing group. The local congregation welcomes the public to join them for the service and potluck dinner following. (Courtesy photo)