

The EMS Continuing Education: Cardio and Respiratory Emergencies class that had been scheduled for March 13 at McCook Community College has been postponed until April 3.

These are training programs for EMS, Firefighters, and all emergency care providers and will teach the procedures that need to be followed by emergency personnel when coming in contact with various scenarios. The Nebraska Emergency Medical Services Program will not discriminate on the basis of gender, race national or ethnic origin, religion, marital status, age, or disability.

Class meets Wednesday, April 3, 6:30-9:30 pm, in McMillen Hall Room 213, instructed by TJ Williams. Class is free.
