

Despite youngsters' disappointment after last weekend's Easter Egg Hunt was postponed due to the weather, they'll have another chance this Saturday, March 30.

The Chamber and Imperial Eagles Auxiliary have rescheduled the hunt for 1 p.m. Saturday at Campbell Park. Parents should make sure to have their youngsters there in time to line up for the 1 p.m. start. Vehicles should enter the park on West 6th St.

Toddlers to two-year-olds should gather in the west end of the park by the golf course fence; three to four-year olds in the ball field's outfield; five and six-year-olds near the water tower; and first and second graders in the east section of park.
