

By Jan Schultz

The Imperial Republican

It took about an hour to locate a missing teen after a CodeRed alert was issued in Imperial Monday.

Police Chief Rob Browning said family members of Naomi Harmon, 17, reported that the teen left the home of relatives in Imperial sometime between late Saturday and early Sunday, and had not returned.

After the CodeRed was issued, a report from a local resident indicated the teen had been spotted. Police officers Ryan Wisnieski and Kyle Hansen eventually located her, and a short chase on foot ensued, Browning said.

Young Harmon had been in South Dakota, and had returned to Imperial with relatives for the weekend.