

The air was full of fireworks during Imperial's annual show set off by the Imperial firemen on July 3. The show got rave reviews again this year, especially with the finale, shown below, when the sky was washed red with multiple shells. Donations for the show can still be made at the Imperial Republican or the Imperial City Office. (Republican photos and photo illustration)

