

Volunteers from several states will descend upon Imperial this week to join local and area residents packing food in the third annual MobilePack™ event for Feed My Starving Children. The event is being held at the Crossroads Wesleyan Church multipurpose room. The event will run through Saturday with the goal of packing more than 500,000 meals. Volunteers can sign up online and walk-ups are welcome as well. Anyone needing more information can contact Dick Banks at 308-883-0397. (Republican photo)
