

Search for armed man, kidnapped wife leads to Imperial

Nebraska State Patrol SWAT teams assembled at a farm building just northwest of Imperial early Sunday afternoon as a helicopter flew above in an attempt to locate Julie Hanes of Lincoln. She was allegedly kidnapped Saturday by her estranged husband, Dewayne Lawrence.

Just after noon, the teams centered their search in an area northwest of Imperial after their car was spotted on a county road about two miles north of Imperial Sunday morning.

Hanes' parents and brother, his wife and family live in Imperial.
