

The Chase County Historical Society's annual dinner meeting will include a program on the 1935 Republican River flood.

Gene Morris of McCook will present the program through Humanities Nebraska.

To be held Sept. 15 at the Champion Community Center, the dinner is open to the public.

Tickets should be purchased from any board member by Sept. 8.