

The Southwest Nebraska Entrepreneurs group, composed of 25 business persons, hosted a craft fair at the Champion Community Center Saturday. They host fairs four times a year, selling items such as candles, purses, jewelry, quilt items, makeup, scrapbook supplies and more. Their event helped provide a lot of fall activity in the Champion area on Saturday. (Republican photo)