

Accompanied by their dad, Lloyd, 10-year-old Tory Stott and 12-year-old Dominique Stott ventured over to the fairgrounds Monday evening to try out the new kite Dominique got from her brother for her 12th birthday this week. After several days of much-needed and welcomed rain, skies cleared Sunday as temperatures began to slowly climb into the 80s by midweek. (Republican photos)

