

During a Court of Honor Jan. 19, Korey Krutsinger was awarded the highest Boy Scout rank, the Eagle Scout. His service project consisted of building a picnic shelter at Rock Creek State Recreation Area near Parks. Speaking at the Court of Honor for Krutsinger, second from right, were, from left, former Assistant Scoutmaster Rev. George Matthews, Sr. Patrol Leader Nate Auffet, Scoutmaster John Lemon and former Assistant Scoutmaster Pat Rotherham. They represented Troop 218 of Benkelman. Krutsinger is the son of Lisa and Kriss Krutsinger of Imperial. The Court of Honor was held at the St. Patrick's Parish Hall in Imperial. (Republican photo)
