

The action at Saturday's Chase County Bullriding Challenge was nothing but high-flying, as illustrated when cowboy Brad Harris of Udall, Kan., went flying off the back of the bull, Automatic, as the bull fighter gets ready to move in should Harris needs some protection. See more on the bullriding challenge in the sports section. (Republican photo)