

Organizers of Celebration on the Square in Imperial moved the event from July to June in hopes of cooler temperatures, and that was exactly how it was Saturday, when comfortable 70-degree readings greeted attendees. Among the shoppers at the 10 to 12 booths, above, where Kim Bubak and children. Music was also part of the day, at left, with acoustic guitarist Paul Siebert, and the Little Brown Jug Band, below, who also played later that day as a Chase County Area Arts Council event at the Imperial Theatre. Chase County Tourism organizes Celebration on the Square, previously known as Art in the Park. (Republican photos)

