

On a hot, summer 4th of July, nothing is better than kids and water. That was the scene Saturday at the sixth annual IVFD Fun Day held at the Wellington St. football field. Above, second grader Bennett Bauerle cruises in the cool water on the slip 'n slide, while, at right, two-and-a-half year old Kalon Hoogerbrugge, who just moved to Imperial, runs along the slip 'n slide in his bright green water shoes. Below, five-year-old Jordan Jablonski winds up to make her pitch at the dunk tank, as Ashton Robinson and Correy Koellner wait for their turns. Fireman Rob Lueth gets dunked later in the day. (Republican photos)

