

A long-time member of the Imperial Eagles, Arvin Kurth, was inducted into the Nebraska State and Local Eagles Hall of Fame posthumously for his assistance and contributions to the local club in Imperial. Janice Kurth, center, accepted the memorial plaque on behalf of her late husband, which was presented to her by Doyle and Bettie Knapp and Mike Liewer of the local club. Kurth was one of 32 inductees this year in the 10-year-old Hall of Fame. (Courtesy photo)
