

By Jan Schultz

The Imperial Republican

Shelby Frasier of Benkelman, a junior at Chase County Schools, was named one of two Equine Athletes of the Month for October.

She and fellow Athlete of the Month Wyatt Mann of Box Elder, SD, were featured in this month's edition of the National High School Rodeo Association Times magazine, the association's official publication.

In the magazine, she is featured in a photo with her horse Admiral in barrel racing competition. An essay she submitted about her horse was also published.

For her selection, she received a full set of Professional Choice SMB elite boots.