

Athletes at Chase County Schools have shifted gears from fall to winter sports. The new sports season of basketball and wrestling got underway Monday with the first day of practice. Above, Head Boys Basketball Coach Carl Zuege reviews a play with his team of 26 this year. At right, Head Girls Coach Marc Mroczek, pictured at back, has his team of 13 work on defense, while the Longhorn wrestling team, which has 12 out this year, reviews techniques with Asst. Coach Rob Lueth during their first practice Monday. (Republican photos)

