

After his win in the heartbreak match at districts Saturday, Chase County wrestler Keithan Cochran leaps into a congratulatory hug from Longhorn Coach Matt Vlasin. Cochran then went on to take third in the 112 lb. class for a trip to state, and is one of four Longhorns headed to the season finale this week. Other qualifiers include Jeremiah Lueth at 140, Trevor Roenfeldt at 215 and Nathan Hinojosa at 285 (Hwt). First rounds at state are today (Thursday) at the Qwest Center in Omaha. (Republican photo)
