

Members of the Chase County Longhorn golf team took advantage of warm, sunny weather early this week to hone their skills for the upcoming season. A total of 15 golfers comprise this year's team. On Monday, the trio of Skylar Reinke, left, and Keithan Cochran, front right, and Charlie Haarberg, back right, got a practice round in. They are shown on the first tee box at the Imperial Country Club. (Republican photos)

