Chase County's Longhorns left little doubt who was in control Friday night as they romped over Mitchell with a 50-7 homecoming win.

The Longhorns improved to 3-2 and now refocus their efforts on Gothenburg. The Swedes come into Longhorn territory with their own 3-2 record after falling to Cozad Friday 42-7.

Coach Dan Lenners said Gothenburg will bring a good team to town Friday night. They smacked down Mitchell 41-0 in the second week of the season. Their only other loss came to Broken Bow in a 15-14 battle.

Lenners said his team will have to put together a quality effort Friday night to add another win to their record. "This will be a tough game for us," he said.

'Horns tackling much better

Lenners came away from Friday's win with a much better feeling about the Longhorns' tackling.

"We did a lot better," Lenners said, after struggling with tackling issues in losses to Chadron and Cozad.

Lenners said the focus of the defensive portion of practice was devoted to tackling and getting back to fundamentals.

It showed as the Longhorns put some big hits on several Mitchell players. The defense added several sacks while hurrying their quarterback on numerous occasions.

He said they will continue to focus on tackling on the defensive side of the ball this week. Offensively, blocking until the whistle blows will be the focus.

He said there were numerous situations that had the blocks been held longer, five-yard gains would have turned into 10 to 15 yards.

The Longhorns generated several turnovers Friday night and were able to capitalize on the opportunities. "It was nice to get some turnovers," Lenners said.
