

Practice has been underway a week and a half for the start of the high school wrestling season, which opens for the Chase County Longhorns next Thursday, Nov. 29, when they travel to a double dual in Oshkosh against Garden County and Bridgeport. Two days later on Dec. 1, they will travel to their first tournament at Broken Bow. Above, four members of the team go at it at practice Monday afternoon, from left, Hunter Dillan, Caleb Bubak, Michael May and Luis Rodriguez. Coach Matt Vlasin said he has eight wrestlers on the team this season. Others include David Almanza, Kris Kuhlmann, Jake Lueth and Johnathan Fegley. (Republican photo)
