

Plainsman Rifle and Pistol Club will hold its annual 100 rock trap shoot on Dec. 2, at 1 p.m.

Fifty 16-yard targets and 50 handicap targets will be shot. After the 100 rocks are shot, fun shoots will be held including Annie Oakleys, protection and other fun shoots.

Bring the whole family to shoot. A pot of chili will be on to help keep participants warm.

The club's also looking for six to 10 women who would be interested in taking part in a trap shooting clinic taught at the local range.

For more information call Robert Grams 882-4084, David Hogsett 882-4983 or Kim Silvester 882-5344.

The range is located 10 1/2 miles south of Imperial on Avenue 331 (junk yard road).
