

There will be cheerleaders, pep bands and certainly the fans. But nothing spells school pride and competition more than when the ball meets the hardwood in the state high school basketball championships.

The best girls' basketball teams in Nebraska invade Lincoln to battle it out for state championships in six different classes, with the finals telecast live across the state from the Bob Devaney Sports Center this Saturday, March 2, on NET1 and NET-HD.

The NSAA Girls State High School Basketball Championships will begin at 9 a.m. CT with the Class C-2 finals. The day-long coverage continues with the Class D-2 championship game at 11 a.m. CT and the Class A title game at 1 p.m. CT.

The match-ups continue at 4:30 p.m. CT with the championship game for Class C-1, followed at 6:30 p.m. CT by the Class B final. The Class D-1 championship game concludes the day's action at 8:30 p.m. CT.
