

With Monday's mid-30 degree temperatures, it wasn't the best start to the 2013 spring track season at Chase County Schools. But, after some stretching indoors, the teams were outside for some running drills. Carl Zuege, who heads the boys' team this year, reports 30 young men out for his team. Al Zuege returns as girls' coach, and has 22 on his roster. The Longhorn teams will open the season March 23 in Cambridge. (Republican photos)
