

By Russ Pankonin

The Imperial Republican

This past weekend's snow and cold temperatures altered the schedule for the CCS golf team.

Originally, the varsity planned to open the season at Bayard Tuesday. However, meet officials moved the meet to today (Thursday).

Golfers competing for the Longhorns include Matt Hayes, Casey Francis, Scott Lakey, Keithan Cochran and Steven Fish.

The jayvees opened their season as planned Tuesday at the Dundy County-Stratton meet, although the start time was moved back an hour.

Golfers competing at Benkelman included Cody Cravey, Adam Moline, Travis Wheeler, Charlie Haarberg, Sean Mandeville, Chevy Smith and Adam Dickey.

The varsity will compete again at the Lexington invite on Tuesday, April 14 with the jayvees playing in the Wauneta-Palisade invite Thursday, April 16 at Enders.