This year's spring season of the Nebraska High School Rodeo Association kicked off April 27-28 at McCook.

There are only two more qualifying rodeos this weekend before the state finals in June.

Saturday's rodeo will be held in Gordon followed by the final regular season rodeo Sunday at Valentine.

In the standings after last weekend's rodeos, Ty Spickelmier, Imperial, sits second in the tie down roping and third in the team roping.

Jordyn Doetker of Wauneta sits in seventh place in the girls cutting.

Kelsey Wood of Imperial sits 18th in breakaway roping, 20th in the pole bending, 24th in the barrels, and 52nd in the team roping.
