

By Carolyn Lee

The Imperial Republican

Professional ultimate fighter and former Imperial resident Jay Wood volunteered his time for a wrestling camp for Chase County Schools wrestlers and possible teammates May 25.

Back for his 10-year reunion, Wood met with about 12 students for several hours to discuss and demonstrate wrestling moves, nutrition and weight room use.

Wrestling coach Matt Vlasin said he'd been in contact with Wood, now an Omaha resident, for some time regarding a possible camp.