

Despite a short rain delay mid-morning, Imperial's home swim meet Saturday was able to continue once the storm passed. The Imperial pool was a busy place as the competition was back underway after the rain. At right, Zane Mays, foreground and Zack Herbert, dive in to compete in the 25 meter breast stroke. Below left, Imperial Coach Kristi McNair reviews some proper stroke technique with her daughter, Landry, just prior to one of her races. (Republican photos)

