The Imperial Republican

All three Chase County teams won in straight sets as Wray, Colo., came to Imperial last Tuesday night for volleyball matches.

The win upped the varsity Lady Longhorn record to 4-1 on the season as they entered play this week.

After traveling to Holyoke, Colo., Tuesday night, Chase County will host their in-county counterparts when Wauneta-Palisade comes to town tonight (Thursday) for matches starting with the C teams at 5 p.m.

The Lady Broncos' varsity has had a good start to their season as they are 6-0 this week.

The Class D2 Wauneta-Palisade team has tallied wins over Wallace, Minatare, St. Francis, Kan., Arapahoe, Hayes Center and Hitchcock County en route to a big battle against Southwest Tuesday night this week.
