

Four bowlers from the Chase County Special Olympics team competed at a regional tournament in Ogallala Dec. 14.

Teams from all over the Panhandle and southwest Nebraska attended.

Ryan Leibhart came in first in his division with a 148-150-176 game.

Nathanael Rau came in third in his division with a 69-44-57 game.

Dustin Holmes and Samantha Oxford were a doubles team, coming in first in their division. Holmes had a 93-92-96 game, while Oxford scored an 81.

Special Olympics basketball began in Imperial Dec. 12.