Scoring in every event in both grade divisions, the seventh and eighth grade teams from Chase County Schools both won their respective meet at the Perkins County Invite last Thursday.

Coach Mark Bottom said it was a team effort to capture both wins and noted his fellow coaches had athletes in the right events.

The top eight in each event earned a ribbon and scored.

Individual firsts in the eighth grade division were tallied by Caleb Weiss in long jump, 100 and 200; Kass Cochran, triple jump; Jack Bauerle, shot and discus; and Juan Venegas, 1600. Both relay teams also took first.
