

Lots of children in Imperial were able to touch base with Santa one more time before Christmas arrives next week. The Jolly Ol' Elf was at Alco in Imperial Saturday afternoon for a couple of hours, and children posing for photos and telling him their wants kept him very busy. Above, these three brothers, from left, Kobe, Gavyn and Braxton Maris, get into a pose for a photo with Santa. Below, Kenyan Biesecker isn't shy about showing Santa exactly what he'd like for Christmas, pulling the toy right off a nearby display shelf. Sister Kirsten just smiles. (Republican photos)
